Re: Gary Pastor

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with confidence that I write regarding my experience with Gary Pastor of the North Carolina Protection Group.

It was during the inauguration of President Trump in January of 2016 that I had occasion to use his protection services. The atmosphere in Washington was tense and at times dangerous.

As a former District Attorney and County Judge, I am quite familiar with and have had the benefit of security details for over 15 years. Gary is prompt, prepared, attentive, understands the complexity of unusual situations and without a doubt, is someone whose services I would seek to use again.

Very truly yours,
